Anthony Horderns' for Everything.

"HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY."

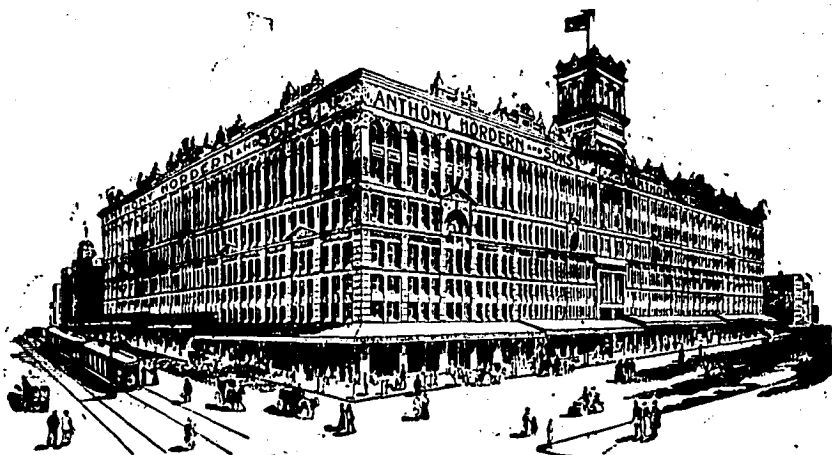

To just what extent this time-honoured copybook motto has become woven into the operations of all successful traders during the many years that have passed is perhaps not always appreciated. Suffice it to say that without this great guiding principle no man has found it possible to command even a measure of success.

Ever since the great house of Anthony Horderns' commenced operations in a very humble way "Honesty is the Best Policy" has been to them as a guiding star, pointing to success upon success, culminating in the huge store on Brickfield Hill, a vast monument to that great moral influence. And while claiming to have always conducted our business honestly, we also pride ourselves on the fact that we have always given full value for the money expended. That is why Anthony Horderns' and Economy are so unalterably associated. These and economy opportunities will appeal to the man who wants his money to go the farthest these times.
